

32. Undated and unsigned note in ink in the hand of William Claxton Peppé with hand copy of inscription in pencil

The only inscription of any kind is scratched on the cover of the smaller urn. The letters are in the Pali character & about 7/16 of an inch long. I have been unable to get an inscription as the letters are so slightly scratched, but I have made a very careful pencil rubbing and annex a facsimile of it: -

*The Brahmi letters are then carefully set out in pencil.
Below is one additional line in ink:*

Translation from Pioneer [?]and Bühler
Iya